Click It or Ticket Arrives Again for Labor Day

This Labor Day weekend, U.S. Army Europe is repeating Click It or Ticket, a campaign to get everyone to wear seatbelts, Aug. 30 to Sept. 2. Military Police will enforce seatbelt compliance on USAREUR installations and in housing areas. Off-post the German police will also set up checkpoints.

Vehicle operators who drive without wearing a seatbelt or who don't require passengers to wear seatbelts or restraining devices can be penalized. A first-time offender's driving privileges are suspended for seven days. A second-time offender loses driving privileges for 30 days and receives a letter of counseling. A third-time offender's driving privileges are suspended for 180 days and repeat offenders can lose driving privileges for up to one year if the suspending authority deems it appropriate. Each offense also adds two traffic points to the offender's driving record. German authorities charge a €30 fine against drivers who drive without a seatbelt.

stop. Stress good behavior on the bus. Report safety concerns immediately to the school transportation office.

Parents should review these basic safety rules with their children: be on time (walk, don't run to the bus stop); wait for the bus three steps back from the curb; take your seat on the bus and stay in it; get off the bus, take three steps away and wait for the bus to leave and never cross the street in front of or behind the bus.
